

419 Lill Street – Noncontributing

This is a one-story, frame, side-gabled Minimal Traditional style dwelling built ca. 1955. The house has a side gable roof of asphalt shingles, an exterior end brick chimney, a continuous poured concrete foundation and an exterior of wide-width weatherboard siding. The dwelling's main entrance is on the west elevation and has an original, two-horizontal-light glass and wood door. The entrance leads to a small stoop of poured concrete with a large stone rail with a stone plant box on the north end and a metal railing on the south end. Windows in the dwelling are original, two-over-two horizontal-light double hung wood sash. On the main façade, adjacent to the entrance, is an original, single-light picture window flanked by two-over-two double wood sash windows in a wood surround. On the north elevation of the dwelling is an enclosed breezeway that leads to an attached garage. The breezeway has an original entrance on the west elevation with a four-light glass and wood door flanked by two-over-two horizontal-light double hung wood sash windows. The breezeway entrance leads to a small poured concrete landing that is framed with a metal railing. The dwelling has wide eaves.

The attached garage has a gable roof of asphalt shingles and an original, twenty-four wood panel overhead track garage door on the west elevation and original, two-over-two-horizontal-light double hung wood sash windows on the north elevation. At the roofline of the garage is an original, square, frame cupola with louvered vents and a metal weather vane.
